A Child in the Woods.—Some sensation has been caused in the neighborhood of Sherbrooke, Lower Canada, by the discovery of a white child, supposed to be four or five months old, in the possession of a small party of the St. Francis Indians. The poor little creature was in a wretched state of suffering—emaciated almost to a mere skeleton—lashed to a board, papoose fashion, with a piece of raw venison in its mouth, which the squaw who had it in charge had given it to satisfy its ravenous hunger, being herself incapable of supplying the proper food designed by nature for infants of that tender age. The poor child was purchased from the Indians by a kind hearted Captain Adams, who paid them for it five dollars and a barrel of flour. He also provided for it a suitable nurse and comfortable clothing. It is intimated that the parents are known, or at least suspected. The child was not stolen from them, but transferred by themselves to the Indians—with what purpose the Canada papers do not say.—[N. Y. Com. Adv.]

A small boy heard a preacher preach a sermon from these words, "Ye must be born again," which was frequently repeated during the discourse. The little hearer paid strict attention to all that was said, and particularly the text. After he returned he became melancholy, and he was found weeping bitterly. His father tenderly inquired after the cause of his distress. The boy told him that the preacher had said he must be born again. "Well, my son," replied the father, "why do you cry about it?" "Oh, sir," says the boy, "I'm so afraid that next time I'll be a gal."

Go it Boots!—A Mrs. Boots of Pennsylvania has left her husband, Mr. Boots, and strayed to parts unknown. We presume that this pair of Boots are rights and lefts. We cannot say, however, that Mrs. Boots is right, but there is no mistake that Boots himself is left. At the last accounts he was pursuing her with all his might. Go it Boots! [Picaune.]

It is said of one of the ancient fathers, he would weep at the applause that was frequently given to his sermons. "Would to God," said he, "they had rather gone away silent and thoughtful!" I love a serious preacher, who speaks for my sake, and not for his own; who seeks my salvation, and not his own vain glory. [Fenelon's Letter to the French Academy.]

REVEREND IMPOSTOR!!!

LOOK OUT! Look out!! look out for an IN-FAMOUS KNAVE, by the name of

who was formerly a BAPTIST PREACHER, and better known to the citizens of Monroe county as the "REVEREND IMPOSTOR." This scoundrel VILLAIN who was dismissed from his pulpit, some time since, for improper conduct, is now rendering himself still more infamous, by wickedly attempting to impose not merely upon a Church, but the WHOLE COMMUNITY.

A few months ago this scoundrel wrote to the subscriber, at Boston, and wished to be appointed an agent for the sale of the Matchless Sanative. The General Agent, not knowing his depraved character, gave him an agency, and forwarded him a quantity of the medicine. This he soon sold, and remitted the money, and ordered another lot, which was sent about one month since. To avoid any suspicion as to the DESIGN of his applying for an agency, or to conceal his "CLOVEN FOOT" he made a partial remittance of the sales of the last lot, only 10 days ago. Yesterday, with utter astonishment the General Agent learnt, that this REVEREND IMPOSTOR is now impudently manufacturing with his own unholy hands, a worthless medicine, a SPURIOUS SANATIVE, which he is employing swindling pedlars to palm upon the public as the GENUINE ORIGINAL.

If the people of America will only bear ONE FACT in mind, there is not even a possibility of their being duped by this UNPRINCIPLED VILLAIN. The fact is this:—IF NO PEDLAR, or TRAVELLING AGENT has ever been employed in this country to sell the Sanative, or to leave it with any person to sell on commission. Again, every Agent of the TRUE Sanative, is appointed by the GENERAL AGENT, and receives the medicine directly FROM THE DEPOSITORY IN BOSTON.

N. B.—Every agent of the Matchless Sanative, is earnestly desired to give immediate alarm, by having this article inserted one month in all the papers in their towns. And that the General agent may be certain that the public are put on the look out for the impostor, he will kindly thank all his agents to forward him a copy of each paper advertised in, as soon as possible.
